Text and Translations

Glow

Eric Whitacre (born 1970)

Softly falls the winter snow,
whispers to the sleeping world
below:

“Wintertide awakes,” morning breaks and sets the earth aglow.

In gentle tones of warmest white,
Proclaim the glory of Aurora’s light.
Sparrow wings in a clear clean voice, a sweet, silver carol for the season born.

Radiant wings as the skies rejoice,
Arise and illuminate the morn.

Softly falls the winter snow,
whispers to the sleeping world
below:

“Glow, like the softly falling snow.”

—Edward Esch

Walk Out on the Water

Matt Peters (born 1980) and

Brendan Berg (born 1983)

Still got a ticket to play;
I won’t be walking away.
I feel all the weight of the world;
I won’t get another one.

Will I be singing a hallelujah
when I walk out on the water?
I’m not going under.

I own the space that I occupy.

Oh, oh, Hallelujah!
Climb up through the trees,
I’m strong enough to breathe,
I grow my wings like a butterfly.

I woke up alone on the shore,
The sun it fought through my eyes.
Wondering what all this is for...
Is it for you?

Phone stuck, hung up,
I never hear what you say you’re saying.

Line cut, when the door shut,
I don’t know why I straying.

Everything’s happening the way I want.

Is everything happening the way I
want?

Starlight

Mark Grizzard (born 1979)

Starlight, I’m a heavy soul tonight.
I am wondering if the road I’m on is right.

I’m thinking all of the time and I need rest,
I need peace, I need silent hours to find me
with a clear, simple word and a signal fire
to guide me through the night.

Starlight, I find you in shifting place, but I am the one who is turning,
spinning ‘round in all this space.
You’re not moving.

Starlight, if I keep my eyes on your bright beacon, I’ll find reason, I might be reminded of the lasting things;
in every season of my life a constant is inviting my mind up to greater heights.

You’re with me all of the time.
When the sun’s burning bright, or neon’s blinding my eyes, You’re with me all of the time.

Starlight, staying in your sight
I am light tonight.

Merry Christmas

Ed Sheeran (born 1991) and Elton John (born 1947)

Build the fire and gather 'round the tree;
Fill the glass and maybe come and sing with me.

So kiss me under the mistletoe;
Pour out the wine, let's toast and pray for December snow.
I know there's been pain this year,
but it's time to let it go.
Next year, you never know -
But for now, Merry Christmas!

We'll dance in the kitchen while embers glow.
We've both known love, but this love
we got is the best of all.
I wish you could see you through my eyes, then you would know
Oh my, you look beautiful right now.
Merry Christmas!

The fire is raging on, and we'll all sing along to the song,
Just having so much fun.
While we're here, can we all spare a thought for the ones who have gone? Merry Christmas, everyone!

I feel it when it comes: every year helpin' us carry on.
Filled up with so much love, all our family and friends
Are together where we all belong.
Merry Christmas, everyone!

It's Christmas time, for you and I will have a good night and a Merry Christmas.

Huron Carol

*Traditional Canadian Carol
arr. Andy Hillhouse*

'Twas in the moon of wintertime when all the birds had fled That mighty Gitche Manitou sent angel choirs instead.
Before their light the stars grew dim and wondering hunters heard the hymn,
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is
born, in excelsis gloria.

Within a lodge of broken bark, the tender babe was found;
A ragged robe of rabbit skin
enwrapped his beauty round
But as the hunter braves drew nigh the angel song rang loud and high Jesus your King is born, Jesus is
born, in excelsis gloria.

The earliest moon of wintertime is not so round and fair
As was the ring of glory on the helpless infant there.
The chiefs from far before him knelt with gifts of fox and beaver pelt.
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is
born, in excelsis gloria.

O children of the forest free, O sons of Manitou
The holy Child of earth and heaven is born today for you.
Come kneel before the radiant boy who brings you beauty peace and joy.
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is
born, in excelsis gloria.

— Jean de Brébeuf

Candles are Dancing

Penny Blake (born 1951) and Harris Loewen (born 1953)

When it is winter, candles are dancing
– banishing care
Welcoming warmth and hope fill the air
as beautiful as a prayer.

Dancing, dancing, flickering flames wondrous their gleams
Dancing, dancing,
into our hearts and dreams.

Flames on the candles dance to and fro they tell us a tale of long, long ago

Shine from the windows with their sweet glow
and whisper what we must know
Dancing dancing,
see them flaming, see their gleaming
Dancing, dancing
into our hearts and dreams

Into the darkness, into the night see bright little beacons, beaming their light spreading their joy, wherever they might
and dancing to our delight

Brightest and Best

*Southern Harmony
arr. Shawn Kirchner*

Hail the blessed morn, see the great Mediator
down from the region of glory descend!
Shepherds, go worship the babe in the manger,
lo, for his guard the bright angels attend.
Brightest and best of the stars of the morning,

dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid.

Star of the East, the horizon adorning, guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on his cradle the dewdrops are shining,
low lies his head with the beasts of the stall.

Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Savior of all.

Shall we not yield him, in costly devotion,
fragrance of Edom and offerings divine,
gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine?

— Reginald Heber

A Christmas Carol (from “Scrooge”)

*Leslie Bricusse (1931-2021)
arr. by Mark Hayes*

Sing a song of gladness and cheer
For the time of Christmas is here
Look around about you and see What a world of wonder this world can be,

Sing a Christmas carol
Sing a Christmas carol
Sing a Christmas carol like the children do
And enjoy the beauty, all the joy and beauty
That a merry Christmas can bring to you

— Leslie Bricusse

The Christmas Waltz

Jule Styne

arr. Mark Hayes

Frosted window panes,
candles gleaming inside,
painted candy canes on the tree.
Santa's on his way,
he's filled his sleigh with things,
things for you and for me.

It's that time of year when the world falls in love;
Ev'ry song you hear seems to say;
"Merry Christmas,
may your New Year dreams come true."

And this song of mine,
in three-quarter time,
wishes you and yours
the same thing too.

—Sammy Cahn

This Endris Night

Sarah Quartel (born 1982)

This endris night I saw a sight,
a star as bright as day,
And ever among, a maiden sung,
"Lully, by by, lullay."

This lovely lady sat and sang,
And to her child did say:
"My son, my brother, father dear, Why liest thou thus in hay?"

My sweetest bird, 'tis thus required, though thou be king veray,
but nevertheless I will not cease to sing "By by, lullay."

The child then spake whilst she did sing,
and to his mother did say,
"Yea, I am known as Heaven-King
in crib though I be laid.

For angels bright down on me light;
thou knowest 'tis no nay.

And for that sight thou may delight
to sing, "By by, lullay."

"Now sweet son, since it is so, that all is at thy will,
I pray thee grant to me a boon,
if it be right and skill,

that child or man, who will or can,
be merry on my day,
to bliss them bring and I shall sing,
"Lully, by by, lullay."

—Anonymous 15th Century

Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day

John Rutter (born 1945)

Tomorrow shall be my dancing day:
I would my true love did so chance
To see the legend of my play,
To call my true love to my dance:

Refrain:

Sing, O my love, O my love, my love, my love;
This have I done for my true love.

Then was I born of a virgin pure,
Of her I took fleshly substance;
Thus was I knit to man's nature,
To call my true love to my dance:
[Refrain]

In a manger laid and wrapped I was,
So very poor, this was my chance,
Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass,
To call my true love to my dance:
[Refrain]

—English traditional carol

Orion

Susan LaBarr (born 1981)

Most mourn the falling leaves,
The weight of death the ground receives.
Yet you rise in Winter's Chill,
And in the gloom you still believe.

Most mourn the setting sun.
The aging day is overcome.
Yet you rise in Twilight Still,
And night reveals you one by one.

Carefully the constellations
Bend their knees to your dictation.
Standing guard with quiver ready,
Stance you've held for centuries steady.
Warrior high above the earth,
Telling human beings of their worth.

Most mourn the sinking mast,
The ocean's pull into the vast.
Yet you rise at Memory's Will,
And you will stand on ages past.

—Faith Zimmer

Children, Go Where I Send Thee

African American Spiritual
arr. by Kevin Phillip Johnson
Rap crafted by Ayana Davis

Children go where I send thee!
How shall I send thee?

I gonna send thee one by one.
One for the little bitty baby
wrapped in a swaddlin' clothin'
laid down in a manger that's
born in Bethlehem.

I gonna send thee two by two,
two for Paul and Silas

I gonna send thee ten by ten,
ten for the ten commandments.
Nine for the nine that dressed so fine, eight for the eight that stood at the gate,
seven for the seven that went up to heaven,

six for the six that never got fixed,
five for the gospel preachers,
four for the four that stood at the door,
three for the Hebrew children
two for Paul and Silas,
one for the little bitty baby,
wrapped in a swaddlin' clothin'
laid down in a manger that's
born in Bethlehem.

Story that I'm writin'
seed to sow is never endin' everlastin' to everlastin'
and you know it's on to heaven, you get the God message in the aim is a lesson
and quit the instant messin and the messages are festerin.'
Softening our hearts and it's reachin'
all the people.
We do this in the streets and underneath the steeple.
Rather talk the talk but the young ones
walk the walk.
They are crawlin in the dark but my voice it is the torch.
Drink the milk eat the meat fallin' at the Savior's feet.
The sinner take a peek everybody take a peek
at the heart of the matter he's the King of the Kings.
Married to the church I got the lord of the rings,
Gold streets where I'm dancin', Father got mansions,
beauty in God imagine.
What do you fathom?
You heard this story to grow.
Hey! So it's time to go! Hey! Hey!
You heard this story to grow.
Love and light so it's time to go!

Born to us a child is born and the government will be on his shoulders.
And they will call Him Wonderful Counselor
Almighty God! Everlasting Father!

—African American Spiritual

What Sweeter Music

John Rutter (born 1945)

What sweeter music can we bring
Than a carol, for to sing
The birth of this our Heav'nly King?
Awake the voice! Awake the string!

Dark and dull night, fly hence away,
And give the honour to this day
That sees December turn'd to May.

Why does the chilling winter's mourn
Smile, like a field beset with corn?
Or smell like a meadow newly shorn Thus on the sudden? Come and see The cause, why things thus fragrant
be:

'Tis he is born, whose quick'ning birth
Gives life and lustre, public mirth,
To Heaven, and the under-earth.

We see him come, and know him
ours,
Who, with his sunshine and his show'rs,
Turns all the patient ground to flow'rs.

The darling of the world is come,
And fit it is, we find a room
To welcome him.
The nobler part of all the house here,
is the heart,

Which we will give him, and bequeath
This holly, and this ivy wreath,
To do him honour; who's our King,
And Lord of all this revelling.

—Robert Herrick

Hariyu

Sarah Riskind (born 1987)

SUNG IN HEBREW

Hariyu Ladonai kol ha'aretz.
Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Et avdu et Adonai b'simcha;
Worship the Lord with gladness;

bo'u l'fanav bir'nana.
come before Him with joyful songs.

Du' ki Adonai hu Elohim.
Know that the Lord is God.

For the Lord is good and His love endures forever;

V'ad-dor vador emunato.
His faithfulness continues through al generations.

—Psalms 100

little tree

Steve Heitzeg (born 1959)

little tree
little silent Christmas tree you are so little you are more like a flower who found you in the green forest and were you very sorry to come away?

see i will comfort you because you smell so sweetly

i will kiss your cool bark and hug you safe and tight just as your mother would, only don't be afraid

look the spangles
that sleep all the year in a dark box dreaming of being taken out and allowed to shine,
the balls the chains red and gold the fluffy threads,

put up your little arms
and i'll give them all to you to hold every finger shall have its ring and there won't be a single place dark or unhappy

then when you're quite dressed you'll stand in the window for everyone to see and how they'll stare!
oh but you'll be very proud and my little sister and i will take hands

and looking up at our beautiful tree we'll dance and sing
"Noel Noel"

Candles in the window,
shadows painting the ceiling,
gazing at the fire glow,
feeling that “gingerbread” feeling.

Precious moments,
special people,
happy faces
I can see.

Somewhere in my mem’ry
Christmas joys all around me,
Living in my mem’ry,
All of the music,
All of the magic,
All of the fam’ly home here with me.
